Trinity Sunday

The doctrine of the Trinity is merely a statement in exact language of the teaching contained in the Bible about the nature of God.

The outstanding lesson taught about God in the Bible is that there is only one God. The first of the Ten Commandments shows this (Exodus 20:2-30). See also Isaiah 45:5.

What then are we to say of the Son and Holy Spirit whose divinity and equality with the Father are everywhere presupposed in the Bible? We say that they are three persons by one God; the Father is God, the Son is God and the Holy Spirit is God, but they are not three different Gods but the same God, God is one.

At his baptism, Christ the Son stands in the river Jordan, the voice of the Father is heard from heaven, and the spirit descends as a dove. (Mark 1:10-11)

The character of God is more complex than we can readily understand but the doctrine of the Trinity points out the unity of God, and the divinity of the Son and the Holy Spirit.
